Open Session by Mayor Farley
Pledge of Allegiance led by Mayor Farley
Invocation done by Alvin Howard

Approval of March 13, 2023 Minutes were approved, Mayor Pro-Tem Whearley made the motion to approve, Council Howard 2nd. Vote unanimous. Council Fields and Allen absent.

Fire Report- Justin Oliver reported 11 calls. A large fire in Pine Mountain, Ga. at apartment complex and few brush fires. Everything is still on track for the floors and new fire truck. There are 3 more in the class to graduate. Total of 22 volunteer firefighters.

Water/Sewer Report- The city had their annual pre-maintenance repairs with Pro Pump. Waiting on high school lift station to get gas. We have our new metal pole barn at water/sewer plant. Sweetbay booster station, we hired to put in VFD to better control the pressure for the water tower, which was an improvement.

Maintenance Report- Terrence reported the sidewalks are repaired. The walkway to the well is looking pretty good. Cement wall at the square was repaired.

Police Report- Chief Weiss gave a first quarter report, they had 238 calls per service. New police vehicle came in Friday and ready to go. We have one officer out on leave.

New Business

Council Howard made the motion to approve the Variance on the sign at Park Elementary, that the Planning and Zoning had recommended, Mayor Pro-Tem Whearley 2nd. Vote unanimous.
