Approval of August 12, 2025 minutes. Councilor Fields made a motion to approve the minutes with necessary corrections. Councilor Howard seconded. Vote 3 for 3. Council Allen absent.

Street/Maintenance – T. Mahone had concerns about trees on the square that needed cleaning up. There is still issues with customers still leaving things in the cul-de-sac. Roadkill on highway, customers' needs to contact DOT(Dept of Transportation). Building has pass inspection.

Water/Sewer- B. Hood reported we had a few leaks. Behind Tiger Lillies was a major leak, some of the businesses were out of water. Before we pack the hole with asphalt, we make sure it's packed down good.

Police Report- Chief Weiss reported they participated in "Touch a Truck" event at Calvary Christian School. RedSpeed contract is up in January. We had a Q/A at the courthouse with "Young Professionals Forum."

City Manager- "POP" Performance of Firefighter grant. We are in the final phase. Firefighters have 7 sets of turnout gears. Sept. 11 we can close out. Microsoft will be reup so that we will get council their own .gov email. There were some issues with the old fire truck. 10-8 will work with the city to get those issues completed. Thorpe Industrial Park may have to be rezone. United Way housing study will be coming 9/9/25. City Clerk Tonia Crittenden out of office for clerks training. Christmas Parade info is coming soon.
